

St. Andrew Orthodox Church

Studies for Adults and Teens

In person, Fall 2021

New Testament Greek for Beginners

Beginning September 8

Wednesdays at 6 pm

Part One: 10-week course

Why study New Testament Greek?

- It will enable you to read the original author in the words they were divinely moved to write.
- It will force you to slow down your Bible reading, making you analyze words and phrases in new ways and engage the text more fully.
- It will allow you to see the different nuances the authors use and how they use the words to compile thoughts and arguments.
- It will help you to understand the thought that the author is trying to communicate.
- It will challenge your brain to work in ways it is not used to, keeping your mind active and sharp.

“Reading the Bible in translation is like kissing your new bride through a veil.”

Introduction to Eastern Orthodoxy

The Feasts of the Church

Beginning September 9

Thursdays at 6 pm

Part One: 10-week course

For those interested in exploring the Orthodox Faith, or refreshing or deepening their understanding.

- You will learn which Gospel provides the text for each of the Great Feasts and why.
- You will reflect on the poetry and imagery of some of the festal texts which are read, chanted, and/or sung.
- You will become acquainted with the theological importance of each of the feasts.
